let's be the kind of alive when you're doomed the way that they do

when there's nothing to do besides wait for the pin drop and laugh til the world stop watch things in bed on a laptop just half watched, half lookin at you in a tank top while we just wait til it turns off since the power in the city block finally bid adeiu but we're happy since we fit each other like glue on a school box or a a moral in an aesop,

that's how it is ever since you and me got me and you and i'm feelin like a fool for ever thinkin it too good to be true

when you made my brain pop, and it gave me the following thought about how to live better than not cuz you should shoot the one shot that you got why wait around for forever when there's now to be kicked off? x3
